Note on data reporting system by Joint Plant Committee (JPC)

1. Issues regarding data collection and reporting system / practices by JPC is reviewed periodically in details at various forum with industry representatives as well as Ministry of Steel in context of the structural changes in the domestic steel industry as well as the prevalent input-output dynamics etc. Accordingly, following recommendation by a high level committee of experts from the industry as well as the Ministry of Steel, the JPC reporting system undergoes modification/s from time to time.
2. The objective is to present an updated and dynamic picture of the modern-day steel industry, which is in sync with the structure, mode of operation, input-output dynamics among others, ensuring at the same time, that such a change does not involve any loss of data.
3. Following are some of the core issues of the present JPC reporting system which is adopted in the present edition of the Annual Statistics :
 - a. A concept of Grouping of steel plants – reflecting purchase / partnership / acquisition / merger and placing them under a common banner - is followed while reporting of iron and steel production data. Such grouping is completely for statistical purposes and is a step towards more comprehensive reporting practice, given the structural changes taking place in the industry. For ex. TSL Group would include Bhushan Steel Limited, Tata Steel Long Products Limited & BMW- Gamharia (Jharkhand) along with TSL plants in Jamshedpur & Kalinganagar. Also, Jindal Steel & Power Ltd. (JSPL) includes its Chhattisgarh plant, Odisha plant & Jharkhand plants. Further, w.e.f. 2022-23, JSW Group has been introduced and includes Bhushan Power and Steel units (Odisha, West Bengal and Chandigarh), JSW Coated Units (Kalmeshwar, Tarapur, Vasind), JSW Vallabh Tinplate Pvt. Ltd. & JSW Steel units (Vijaynagar, Dolvi, Salem and Salav).
 - b. It follows the method of Crude Steel to HR equivalent, covering only those items which contribute directly to Finished Steel Production starting from Crude Steel / Semis Production.
 - c. It thus separates out Downstream and Value Added Product Basket (CR / GP etc) which is reported separately. Conversion factor is taken as 5% (for HR-> CR) & 2% (for CR-> GP/GC/CC
 - d. Also, data on imports, exports, stock variation and consumption of items featured in this Basket are available with JPC and are reported accordingly. There is, however, no aggregate numbers of these parameters for the items in this Basket.
 - e. Steel Consumption is arrived at by standard procedure of adjusting Finished Steel Production with Net Imports and Stock Variation, computed by using all items across the value chain, so as to ensure no loss of data.
 - f. Per capita steel consumption is computed by using steel consumption numbers as arrived at above and population for the country as reported by Central Statistical Organisation (CSO), Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation (MoSPI).
 - g. PSUs include SAIL, RINL & NSL. NMDC Steel Ltd. (NSL) has been included in PSU from September 2023.
